Preston Sampson in the papermill

Pulp Painting Demonstration and
Tour of the Galleries at Pyramid Atlantic

Sunday, March 4th
11am-1pm

Join us in the papermill for a demonstration of pulp painting by Preston Sampson. Preston will collaborate with Resident Papermaker Gretchen Schermerhorn to delight and inform you about the creation of pulp paintings.

Preston Sampson is a local figurative artist whose illuminating works have gained him a national acclaim from private and institutional art collectors. Sampson explores jazz melodies in the most exuberant paintings of musicians and dancers. His goal is for his figurative portrayals “to emote, touch and move you to the center of it all.” Another reoccurring theme in Sampson’s work is the dominant male figure, done in epic and heroic scale, exuding pride and dignity.

Preston Sampson is a Native Floridian and a graduate of the University of Maryland, who is collected widely and nationally. He is recognized both as a painter and papermaking artist. His work can be seen in various public and private collections including Bank of America, National Education Association, Absolut Vodka, and the Dallas Museum of African American Art., among many others. As an educator, he was awarded Educator of the Year in 1999 by the Prince George’s County Arts Council for his work with primary and secondary students.
